Dear Professor Steindorff,

In accordance with your request, communicated to us by Professor Seele, we are returning to you today via Railway Express prepaid and insured, the manuscript COPTIC GRAMMAR. *)

We hope that you will put the manuscript into final shape at your earliest convenience and then return it to us.

You will be pleased to learn that according to verbal information I received recently from Mr. Barrett, Jr. of the Bollingen Foundation, that this foundation is prepared to subsidize publication of the work.

As soon as you return the manuscript to us, we should like to secure an estimate of the subsidy required from Augustin in New York, so that we can file a specific formal request for subsidy with the Bollingen Foundation. Would you be kind enough to acknowledge receipt of the manuscript in due time?

Sincerely yours,

Fred Wieck
