Dear Dr. Steindorff:

We are forwarding to you herewith revised galleys 1-17 and new galleys 33-48 which we received today from Augustin. Manuscript accompanies galleys 33-48.

The amount of corrections made in galleys 1-17 is certainly far in excess of what normally might be expected. We hope that subsequent galleys will make up for the large number of alterations in the introduction. As I wrote you not long ago, if the alteration costs should exceed $300.00 we would have to stop work until new funds can be secured to pay for further alterations. Of course, I am not sure whether such funds could be found at all.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Fred Wieck
