

Brief Seeli's d. d. Febr. 19, 1950 über s. Verhandlung mit Mr. Wick über d. Publikation der Kleinen Grammatik

" I was sorry to learn that he had been unable to find any method of financing its publication. The University of Chicago Press is facing a difficult financial situation at present. and it does not surprise me much that the Press is unwilling to undertake this publication without an outside subsidy.
Wick believes that the publication of the large grammar will hurt the sale of a smaller one, even though I did my best to attempt to persuade him that the two books would really supplement each other rather than compete with each other."
