Dear Mr. Dillonor,

Many thanks for your kind letter of June 20. The manuscript of My Coptic Grammar is now in the Huntington Library to be micro-filmed. As soon as it is ready it will be sent to your office. ^{I gladly} ~~fully~~ approve ^{of} your ^{arrangements} ~~appointment~~ with Mr. Augustin and I am very happy that my work is now ^{going} ~~on its~~ to ~~best~~ way to be printed and published in the near ~~of~~ future.

Thanking you for all your ~~help~~ cooperation
sincerely yours,

GSt.

Please be advised that the ms is enlarged ^{and glossed} by the proper indices / which of course can be fully completed only during the process of printing.
