

THE UNIVERSITY MUSEUM
UNIVERSITY of PENNSYLVANIA
PHILADELPHIA

Nov. 10 1933.

Dear Professor Steindorff,

Herewith I send you prints of the rest of the photographs of scarabs, namely Nos. 896, 897, 2823-2828, 2830.

I also send you the following photographs:-

<sup>9</sup>
No. 2~~8~~54, of the faience stela No. E. 14232, of which I have already sent you copies of the inscriptions. ~~This is from an~~
We appear to have no record of the An. tomb from which this came. These are its dimensions: Height, 0.171 m.; width, 0.121 m. (maximum); thickness, 0.019 m.

<sup>5</sup>
No. 29~~8~~6, of the bronze spearhead No. E. 11100, from An. 15. Length  $\emptyset$ .105 m.

Photograph, sent by the Charleston Museum, of the pot No. E. 11229, of which you already have some details. The dimensions as given by the Charleston Museum are: Height, 0.125 m.; max. width, 0.135 m.

I also send you a drawing of the little scarab No. E. 11032. The drawing is twice the natural size.

The following corrections should be made on p. 6 of "Various Small Objects and Fragments from Anibeh", sent you with my letter of Oct. 13th last. Under "Eyes", lines 4 and 5, read:-

1 eye - obsidian (not "black glass"), no inlay left.

3 pupils from eyes - 1 black glass, 2 obsidian

The ~~squeezes~~ squeezes of the inscribed stones are taking longer than I anticipated, but I hope to get them all off next week.

With kindest greetings, I am
Yours always sincerely,

Battiscombe Gunn

Nov. 10 1933

Dear Professor Steinhardt,

Herewith I send you prints of the rest of the photographs of specimens, namely Nos. 896, 897, 898-899, 900.

I also send you the following photographs:-

No. 894, of the talence stone No. E. 14325, of which I have already sent you copies of the inscriptions. This is the same

We appear to have no record of the An. tomb from which this came.

These are its dimensions: Height, 0.171 m.; width, 0.181 m. (maxi-mun); thickness, 0.019 m.

No. 895, of the bronze spearhead No. E. 11100, from An. 15.

length 0.105 m.

Photograph, sent by the Charleston Museum, of the pot No.

E. 11229, of which you already have some details. The dimensions as given by the Charleston Museum are: Height, 0.135 m.; max.

width, 0.135 m.

I also send you a drawing of the little scarab No. E. 11032.

The drawing is twice the natural size.

The following corrections should be made on p. 6 of "Various Small Objects and Fragments from Antioch", sent you with my letter of Oct. 13th last. Under "Eyes", lines 4 and 5, read:-

1 eye - obsidian (not "black glass"), no inlay left.

2 pupils from eyes - 1 black glass, 2 obsidian

The annexes appended of the inscribed stones are taking longer than I anticipated, but I hope to get them all off next week.