Dear Sir:

I have your letter of January 18th and [I have postponed writing my answer until I had ascertained whether there were any unpublished notes on the Eckley B. Coxe Junior Expedition with reference to its work at Karanog or Anibeh. I now write to say that the investigations on this site were fully published as volumes III, IV and V of the Egyptian Series of the Museum.] I am sending you these volumes through the [International Exchange Bureau in Washington.]

You are, of course, at entire liberty to make full use of the accounts, sketches and photographs in the publications dealing with your own investigations.

Very sincerely yours

Director
